

GREENFIELDS PUBLIC SCHOOL, DILSHAD GARDEN

HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (2026-27)

SUBJECT - Geography

GRADE XII

Summer vacation is the best and most fruitful time for learning and nurturing creativity. Keeping this in mind here are some activities that will enhance your knowledge and creativity.

1. Prepare Geography Practical File .
2. Topic- Processing of Data (Types and sources of Data – write down about types of data Primary and Secondary and its various sources. Draw a flow Diagram of sources of data)

3. Tabulation and Processing of Data:-

Calculation of averages, measures of Central Tendency- Do calculation of Mean, Median and Mode by using both the methods Direct and Indirect method and Grouped and Un grouped Data.

Write down all the steps, formulas and calculations in File.

Points to note for submitting the project:

- Use A3 Size Sheets for Geography Practical Work.
- Practical work should be handwritten and credit will be awarded to original flow diagrams and drawings.
- The file should be presented in the following order:
 - a) Cover page showing practical file name, student information and session.
 - b) Acknowledgement (Acknowledging the institution and person who helped in preparing project)
 - c) Certificate
 - d) List of content with page number (Index)
 - e) Topic with Relevant heading

4. Do revision Assignment from Human Development, Primary Activity and Secondary activity in Geography notebook.

